

COMMEMORATING THE SESQUICENTENNIAL
OF OREGON'S STATEHOOD IN 2009

OREGON 150 MEETS WITH GOVERNOR KULONGOSKI JANUARY 16, 2007

Contact: Barbara Allen, Executive Director
503-306-5209
ballen@oregon150.org

Salem, Ore. The Board of Directors of Oregon 150, a non-profit corporation charged with implementing Oregon's sesquicentennial in 2009, will hold a meeting at the State Capitol Building in Salem on Tuesday, January 16th from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm in Room 50. Newly-elected Board President Barbara Sidway will chair the meeting.

Governor Kulongoski has charged this organization with the planning and implementation of Oregon's 150th anniversary of statehood in 2009 and he will receive an overview of the work already in motion by the Board as they lay out their vision for a strategic plan and its implementation.

This meeting will be videoconferenced. Go to www.oregonchannel.org, click on 'video streaming', then click on '50'.

For more information about the organization, Board composition, and strategic plan work to date, go to www.oregon150.org.

###